

1) What is the Internet? Explain in your own words

Internet is the network connection via which different systems can connect and Exchanges information or Data

2) what is webbrowser? Explain in your own words

Web browsers are software which will retrieve and show information as per the designed with specific programming languages like html from server using websites.

3) What is browser engine? Explain in your own words.

Browser engine is the main component of any browser which converts html code to user understandable data.

4) What is a static site? Explain in your own words

A website who data is not loaded dynamically. In simple words whole data of website will be hardcoded.

5) What is a dynamic site? Explain in your own words.

A website in which data or information are dynamically retrieved form database or server is called dynamic site.